

 LEASIDE DANCE SCHOOL
Dance & Art Summer Camp - FAQ

Q: Who will be teaching at the Summer Camp?

A: The camp will be taught by experienced teachers and assistants with first aid and CPR training:

Erin Kennedy will be teaching Ballet and Folk Dance at the Summer Camp along with organizing the Arts & Crafts activities. Erin is the Director of Leaside Dance School and is a graduate of the National Ballet School of Canada's Teacher Training program and has over 15 years of experience teaching children of all ages.

Courtney Loconte (Lindberg) will be teaching Jazz, Hip Hop & Yoga classes at Summer Camp. Courtney graduated from York University with a BFA in Dance and an education degree. She currently teaches with the York Catholic District School Board and is bilingual in French/English.

Mackenzie Little is an assistant teacher at the camp. She is currently enrolled at York University in the BFA dance program and at the National Ballet School's Teacher Training program. Mackenzie enjoys working with children of all ages.

Q: What is the teacher/student ratio at Summer Camp?

A: Our camp ratio is approximately 1:5.

Q: How will the students be divided?

A: Students will be divided into two groups based on their ages. For some activities, all students may be together.

Q: What will the students be doing each day?

A: Students will participate in two different dance classes per day along with arts & crafts, a scheduled snack break and outdoor activities.

Q: What are the facilities like?

A: Camp will take place in two bright, air conditioned studios in a fully accessible building with a private, nature filled courtyard.

Q: Will the students have any breaks?

A: Yes! Break times are scheduled daily - campers should bring a nut-free snack and drink with them each day.
